

OTHER WAYS TO HELP SWANAGE RAILWAY

VOLUNTEERING

Volunteers play an important role on the Swanage Railway working alongside paid staff. They help with maintaining engines, rolling stock, signalling, track, stations, working as guards, ticket inspectors, in catering, retail and many other areas necessary to make Swanage Railway one of the most prestigious preserved heritage lines in the country.

If you are retired, or have spare time, why not consider enquiring about volunteering and joining our friendly and successful railway?

Contact Volunteer  Officer on 01929 475212 or email:

volunteer@swanagerailwaytrust.org.uk.

LEGACIES

Gifts in the form of a legacy to the railway play a major part in making our aspirations a reality by providing a valuable source of revenue outside our normal income streams.

Further information on legacies can be found in our 'Leaving a gift of legacy to the Swanage Railway' leaflet or on our website.

For other enquiries relating to legacies, contact the Legacy Officer on 01929 425143 or email: legacies@swanagerailway.co.uk.

APPEALS

Swanage Railway has a number of appeals listed on our website page and a donation to any of these is always very much appreciated.

For all queries relating to appeals please contact the Membership Department on 01929 475202 or email: membership@swanagerailway.co.uk.
