

Role Title:	VOLUNTEER SIGNALS AND TELEGRAPH TECHNICIAN
Department:	Signals and Telegraph
Departmental Overview:	The Signal and Telegraph Dept. contributes to the safe running of the Railway with responsibility for the installation and maintenance of all Signalling and Telegraph equipment. This includes all mechanical and electrical components of the system including the Token Block Systems. It is also responsible for line-side and internal telephone systems but not external telecommunications equipment or services.
Reports to:	Signals and Telegraph Manager
Location:	Signals and Telegraph Department is located at Corfe Castle Station with working at all signalling locations on Swanage Railway.
Purpose of the role:	This role helps the Swanage Railway achieve its vision and run a successful railway by ensuring that routine and scheduled maintenance of our S&T equipment is carried out to ensure it is in reliable and safe working order.
What you'll be doing:	These are the key activities that you'll be undertaking: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Scheduled maintenance activities • Fault finding within our existing installations. • Carrying out maintenance and repairs • Working with the S&T Assistants • Translating designs into practical installation. • Complying with the Swanage Railway Volunteer Commitment
What you'll need for the role:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Experience and aptitude in mechanical and/or electrical engineering • To be a team player • Willingness and ability to work outdoors in a physically demanding environment in all types of weather. • Ability to adapt your skills to the requirements of the Railway and associated legislation and standards • Willingness to get your hands dirty. • Flexibility in terms of duties • Willing, on occasions as the need arises, to interact positively with our visitors and passengers. • Willingness to abide by the Swanage Railway Volunteer Commitment
What you'll get	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Using your professional skills to the benefit of the community from the role:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sense of satisfaction • Discounted Refreshments • Free tea/coffee/water • Discounts in SR Shop* • Discounted Rail Travel* *Subject to Membership of Swanage Railway Trust

The Training we'll provide:	Induction Training Attendance at occasional seminars
Time commitment:	The amount of time you give can be flexible dependant on current or future project requirements. Generally any Signals and Telegraph Volunteers, when attending, do so at some stage on a Tuesday Wednesday or Saturday each week.
Other requirements:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Personal Track Safety This role will require the undertaking of training for a Personal Track Safety.
Our vision	The vision of the Swanage Railway Company is to be the leading heritage railway in the UK. To be recognised as the UK's leading heritage railway, the Swanage Railway will actively seek ways of improving its business in all that it does.
Our Values	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Safety, integrity and professionalism underpin our operations. We are committed to high standards of safety, behaviour and expertise in all we do whilst treating everyone with integrity, openness, and honesty. We seek ways of improving our organisation balancing our heritage with modern business practices. • Dedication, commitment and volunteers are at the heart of our community. We are proud of our inspirational history; we have overcome many challenges and achieved great successes through tenacity and perseverance. That spirit lives on today. We celebrate our Volunteers' commitment and dedication which form such a vital part of our Railway. • Customers are at the focus of our services. Our customers are the heart of our business. We welcome feedback to better understand the needs of our customers and improve our service. • Enjoyment, quality and value for money for all. We deliver a memorable experience enjoyed by everyone.